Telegraphic communication was interrupted on all lines leading to this city by the prostration of the wires and poles. The storm is regarded by many as one of the severest that has visited this vicinity for a long time. Reports from along the line of the Midland road are to the effect that the storm was very severe along the road, many houses having been unroofed, trees uproot-ed, fences blown down, &s. It is feared that there has been much damage on the lower river. The storm was very savere in Washington. Trees were blown down, houses un roofed and other damage done in different portions of the city and neighborhood. A cold wave is predicted for to-morrow, with

> SHOT IN THE EYE.—On Saturday night about eight o'clock a youth named Walter Davis, son of the late Captain Wesley Davis, an attache of the shooting gallery on the corner of King and Pitt streets, met with a serious accident, which resulted in the loss of his right eye. The youth had proceeded behind a partition where the targets were creeted, and while there a shot was fired. The ball from the gun entered a small opening between the boards and struck the united by the street as the routh side of an alley ton feet wide, running from Union in the twent in the post of a superior street, at the routh side of an alley ton feet wide, running from Union in the twent in the boards and struck the union from the 7th day of February, 1891, together with the costs of suit and of sale:
